

THE HOLY EUCHARIST

Concerning the Celebration

The President or Celebrant at the celebration of the Eucharist shall be a duly ordained Priest or Bishop of the Anglican Communion.

It is the Bishop's prerogative, when present, to be the principal celebrant at the Lord's Table, and to preach the Gospel.

At all celebrations of the Liturgy, it is fitting that the principal celebrant, whether Bishop or Priest, be assisted by other Priests, and by Deacons and lay persons.

Other Priests present may be invited to concelebrate with the celebrant at the Altar.

A Deacon should read the Gospel and may lead The Prayers. Deacons should also serve at the altar, preparing and placing on it the offerings of bread and wine, and assisting in the ministrations of the Sacrament to the people. In the absence of a Deacon, these duties may be performed by an assisting priest, or by a lay person licensed by the Bishop to undertake these duties.

Lay persons appointed by the celebrant should normally be assigned the reading of the Lessons which precede the Gospel, and may lead The Prayers.

Morning or Evening Prayer may be used in place of all that precedes the Greeting of Peace. A lesson from the Gospel should always be included.

When the service of a Priest cannot be obtained, the Bishop may, at his discretion, authorize a Deacon to distribute Holy Communion to the congregation from the reserved Sacrament in the following manner:

a. The Liturgy of the Word is said up to the confession, after which the following prayer is substituted for The Absolution:

Set us free, from the bondage of our sins, and give us the liberty of that abundant life which you have made known to us in your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, One God, now and forever. Amen.

Then follows the Greeting of Peace (and the receiving of the people's offering). The Deacon reverently places the consecrated Sacrament on the Altar, during which time a communion hymn may be sung.

b. The Lord's Prayer is then said, the Deacon first saying, "As our Saviour has taught us. so we pray."

c. And then, omitting the Breaking of the Bread, the Deacon proceeds with what follows in the liturgy as far as the end of the postcommunion prayer, and then dismisses the people.

It is desirable that the Lessons be read from a lectern, and that the Gospel be read from the same lectern or from the pulpit, or from the midst of the congregation. It is desirable that the Lessons and Gospel be read from a book or books of appropriate size and dignity. It is the duty of every member of the church to be present at the Holy Eucharist every Sunday and on other Holy Days, according to opportunity.

It is the duty of every communicant member to receive Holy Communion frequently after due preparation, particularly on Sundays and on the Greater Holy Days, of which Easter is the chief.

Every parishioner shall contribute regularly of his substance to the maintenance of the worship of God, and the spread of the Gospel, according as God shall prosper him.

The Priest shall frequently warn the people of what is required of those who come to receive the Holy Communion, as set forth in the Catechism.

For the safeguarding of the Holy Mysteries and for the well-being of the Church, it is declared that it is the inherent right of the Bishop of a Diocese to repel offenders from Communion, for good and sufficient cause.

If a person be living in open and unrepented sin, the following procedure shall be observed: the Priest of the Cure in which the case occurs shall without delay give warning to such person, and, if he be unrepentant, shall report the whole matter to the Bishop, and thereafter proceed as the Bishop may direct, provided that the Priest in an unforeseen case, if satisfied of urgency, may refuse Communion to such person until he can bring the matter before the Bishop.

THE HOLY EUCHARIST

THE PREPARATION

At the entry of the Ministers a psalm, canticle or hymn may be sung.

All life, all holiness, comes from you

the God and Father of all.

We therefore bring you these gifts,
and we ask you to make them holy by the power of your Spirit, that they may become the Body and Blood of your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ, who offered Himself in obedience to your will,
the Perfect Sacrifice for all mankind.

On the night He was betrayed,
He took bread,
and when He had given thanks to you,

Christ Jesus is Lord.
He has set us free from the law of sin and death:
In His name alone is our salvation.

PRESIDENT

Father, calling to mind the death your Son endured for our salvation;
His glorious Resurrection and Ascension;
His continual intercession for us in heaven;
and looking for His coming again in glory,
we offer you, in thanksgiving,

Look with favour on your Church’s offering,

and grant that we who eat and drink these holy gifts
may be filled with your Holy Spirit and become one body in Christ.
and serve you in unity, constancy and peace.

May He make us a perpetual offering to you and enable us, in communion with blessed Mary and the whole company of heaven,
to share in the inheritance of your Saints.

With Him, and in Him, and through Him,
by the power of the Holy Spirit, we worship you, Father Almighty, with all who stand before you in earth and heaven in songs of everlasting praise:

ALL

Blessing and honour and glory and power be yours for ever and ever. Amen.

C

PRESIDENT

We give thanks to you Lord our God, for the goodness and love you have made known to us in creation;
in calling Israel to be your people;
in your Word spoken through the prophets:
and above all in the Word made flesh,
Jesus your Son.
For in these last days you sent Him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
to be the Saviour and Redeemer of the world.

In Him, you have delivered us from evil,
and made us worthy to stand before you.
In Him, you have brought us out of error into truth,
out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

For, on the night that he was betrayed
He took bread,
and when He had given thanks to you,
He broke it and gave it to His disciples
and said: "Take this, and eat it:
This is my Body which is given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me."

And after supper
He took the cup of wine:
and when He had given thanks,
He gave it to them and said:
"Drink this, all of you:
This is my Blood of the New Covenant,
which is shed for you and for many
for the forgiveness of sins.
Whenever you drink it,
do this for the remembrance of me."

PRESIDENT
Therefore, Father, according to His command;

ALL
We remember His death
We proclaim His resurrection
we await His coming in glory.

D

PRESIDENT
And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, Lord of all;
presenting to you, from your creation,
this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God,
to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the sacrament of the Body of Christ and His Blood of the New Covenant.
Unite us to your Son in His sacrifice that we, made acceptable in Him,
may be sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time,
reconcile all things in Christ,
and make them new,
and bring us to that city of light
where you dwell with all your sons and daughters;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
the firstborn of all creation,
the head of the Church,
and the author of our salvation:

By whom, and with whom, and in whom,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honour and glory are yours,
Almighty Father, now and ever.

PEOPLE Amen.

PRESIDENT
All glory, praise, and thanksgiving be unto you, O Lord, Holy Father, Almighty, Everlasting God, you created the world and all mankind, and of your tender mercy gave your only Son Jesus Christ to take our nature upon Him, and to suffer death upon the cross, for our redemption. He made there, by His own oblation of Himself once offered, a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation and satisfaction for the sins of the whole world; and He instituted, and in His holy Gospel commanded us to continue, a perpetual memory of His precious death, until His coming again.

Hear us, O merciful Father, we most humbly beseech you; and be pleased to accept, bless and sanctify these gifts and creatures of bread and wine, that they may be for us the Body and Blood of your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ,

For, on the night He was betrayed
He took bread, and when He had given thanks to you,
He broke it and gave it to His disciples and said:
“Take this, and eat it:
This is my Body which is given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me”.

And after supper He took the cup of wine:
and when He had given thanks,
He gave it to them and said:
“Drink this, all of you:
This is my Blood of the New Covenant,
which is shed for you and for many
for the forgiveness of sins,

And although we are unworthy to offer unto you any sacrifice, yet

Whenever you drink it,
do this for the remembrance of me.”

PRESIDENT

In faith we acclaim You, O Christ

ALL:

Dying You destroyed our death;
Rising You restored our life;
Christ Jesus, come in glory.

Now therefore, O Lord and heavenly Father, we your servants with all your holy people, having in remembrance the blessed passion, mighty resurrection, and glorious ascension of your beloved Son, do offer unto your Divine Majesty this Bread of eternal life and this Cup of everlasting salvation, rendering thanks to you for the wonderful redemption which you have made possible for us in Him.

And we beseech you O Father, to accept upon your heavenly altar this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving: and to grant that by the merits and death of your Son Jesus Christ, and through faith in His blood, we and all your whole Church may obtain remission of our sins and all other benefits of His passion.

And we pray that by the power of your Holy Spirit all who shall be partakers of this holy Communion may be filled with your grace and heavenly benediction, and be numbered in the glorious company of your Saints.

And here we offer and present unto you O Lord, ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy and lively sacrifice.

we beseech you to accept this, our bounden duty and service, not weighing our merits but pardoning our offenses;

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory be unto you, O Father Almighty, throughout all ages, world without end.

PEOPLE: Amen.

E

to share our human nature;

He overcame the power of sin and death and brought your people to new birth as first fruits of your new creation.
